Alex:

The production transmission e-mails are attached. It appears that your firm was inadvertently not copied on Productions Nos. 3, 5 and 6 given that they were made in response to meet and confer correspondence with Skyryse in response to its discovery requests. However, I understand that all productions were re-produced to your firm on July 29 (Nos. 1, 3, 4) and August 1 (Nos. 2, 4, 5, 7).

Thank you,
Kazim

Good Afternoon Kazim,

Just following up on this. If you could drop copies of messages transmitting the seven productions into a responsive email, that should resolve it.

Received. Thank you, Lauren.

Kazim, would Plaintiff please confirm the date(s) it sent each production and the email address the production was sent to? We can't tell if this was a firewall issue, or the emails were caught in the spam filter, etc. If possible, we would like to avoid repeating this in the future.

Counsel:

It is our understanding that the Individual Defendants' counsel was copied via e-mail on all document productions to date. Moog's initial document production (MOOG0001-124) was certainly produced directly to the Individual Defendants' prior counsel.

Regardless, I am copying Lauren Doucette from my firm here who will provide you with Moog

Productions Nos. 1, 3, 4, 5 and 6.

Thank you,
Kazim

Counsel:

To date we are only in receipt of two Moog document productions: Moog002, containing bates range MOOG00000125-MOOG0020141, produced on June 6, 2022 and Moog007, containing bates range MOOG0028324 - MOOG0028335, which was produced last night. Given the gap in the bates ranges, it appears we are missing some of Moog's document productions, including its initial production containing bates range MOOG00000001- MOOG00000124. Please verify if Moog has made any other document productions, and if so, please provide the missing productions.

Thank you,
Annabel
